Supervisor Biane Appears as Special Guest on “Voice of the Inland Empire” Radio Show

San Bernardino, CA - On March 26, 2005, San Bernardino County Supervisor Paul Biane was featured as a special guest on KTIE 590AM's "Voice of the Inland Empire" talk show, hosted by Ron Stark. It was a live call-in show, where Supervisor Biane answered live questions regarding issues facing Second District residents.

"I thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity to interact with the residents of the Second District, to talk about issues such as the animal shelter in Rancho Cucamonga," said Supervisor Biane. "The hour flew by quickly."

Along with taking questions, Supervisor Biane also noted that public safety was his top priority in the Second District and throughout the County.

Mr. Stark's show regularly features elected officials, business leaders and other notable community leaders. Mr. Stark took questions by email as well as by phone.

“I look forward to another opportunity to answer questions and to listen to the concerns of Second District residents,” said Supervisor Biane. “I certainly hope any and everyone will directly interact with me and my staff, as I definitely want to hear from as many people as possible. I also encourage people to sign up for my monthly “Biane Bulletin” email updates.”

Supervisor Biane can be contacted at his Rancho Cucamonga District Office at (909) 945-4297, or by email at SupervisorBiane@sbccounty.gov. Anyone may sign up for the “Biane Bulletin” by simply emailing Mr. Biane and asking to be added to his “Biane Bulletin” email distribution list.
